Important things to remember when shooting your video

- Remember to talk about the product! Bring up how high quality it is, how fast the shipping speed was and how much you love the designer style
- Take the time to show the product as you are styling your outfit
- Remember to say how the right tie brings the whole outfit together
- Make sure to bring up the Prime Neckwear website

We will edit the video

Send us your rough unedited clips using google drive, dropbox, or we transfer whatever works best for you. Please follow the scripted timeline and breakdown shown on the page. We will edit and clip together your video. Just focus on getting us the best shots possible
